Dear Mr. Dulles:

With the full approval and endorsement of the President, I have appointed William H. Jackson of New York as a Special Assistant to coordinate the development of United States positions for that phase of the Foreign Ministers meeting at Geneva pertaining to East-West contacts and exchanges.

I shall be grateful for your cooperation in assisting Mr. Jackson in the performance of this important undertaking.

I enclose for your information a copy of my letter of appointment to Mr. Jackson.

Sincerely yours,

JOHN FOSTER DULLES

John Foster Dulles
